2. Attend training classes as provided in these By-Laws and shall pass written and field tests as required by the Cadet Training and Examination Committee and the NJSIAA.

3. Pay annual dues and registration fees in the amount specified by the Executive Council. The Executive Council shall also establish a date by which all dues and registration fees shall be paid. Failure to submit fees to the Corresponding Secretary by the prescribed date shall result in the loss of membership or of late fees being assessed.

4. To renew a membership, a member shall:

a. File a renewal/ registration form with the Association Corresponding Secretary, along with the appropriate fees/dues. The Executive Council shall establish a date by which all dues and registration fees shall be paid. Failure to submit fees to the Corresponding Secretary by the prescribed date shall result in late fees being assessed or the loss of membership.

b. Fulfill all chapter requirements (i.e.: refresher test, concussion certification) as required by the NJSIAA and /or the N.E # 2 Volleyball Officials Association.

Section 2: Membership in this association shall be in one of eight categories:

a. ACTIVE MEMBERS are members in good standing having passed the yearly refresher test as per the NJSIAA requirements, attended required meetings, and paid dues and registration fees meeting all Chapter requirements. These members are eligible to be nominated as officers, serve on committees, and have voice and vote. ACTIVE MEMBERS in good standing shall be eligible to officiate at any level and vote.

b. INACTIVE MEMBERS are members who have paid the appropriate dues and registration fees and have met all Chapter requirements for being classified as inactive members. Inactive members cannot officiate matches at any level, may not hold office, nor serve on committees but shall have voice but not have any voting privileges. An inactive member may remain inactive for a period of two (2) consecutive years and then must return to active status for one (1) year. If a member chooses to become inactive during any given year, notification must be sent in writing or email to the Corresponding Secretary by June 1. Inactive members shall be listed as inactive for the Fall and Spring volleyball seasons. An Inactive Member may change his or her status to active by informing the Corresponding Secretary in writing or Email and paying the necessary dues, registration, and insurance fees by July 31st of the year that he or she chooses to become an active member.

c. RETIRING MEMBERS are members who have given up their license to officiate volleyball matches. Retiring members with at least ten years of service shall be honored provided they meet the following requirements:

- Ten years of active service in good standing
- Submit a letter certifying his/her retirement to the Corresponding Secretary by April 15 of the year in which the retirement is to take place.

d. HONORARY MEMBERS are members who have retired from the association and are extended this honor, by the Executive Council upon retirement from the Association. Honorary members may not officiate matches at any level. They shall not pay any dues, registration, or insurance fees. Honorary members may speak at any meeting but shall not have any voting privileges. They may serve on committees in an advisory capacity only.

e. CADETS Year 1 are officials in training, who have made application to the Association and anticipate meeting certification requirements by attending training classes, passing the NFHSS test, and successfully complete a specific number of observations as determined by the Cadet Training and Examination Committee and approved by the Executive Council. Cadets may not referee varsity games and are not eligible to vote in any Chapter election. Cadets who do not fulfill the evaluation requirements within a year are to be carried over to the next year and are required to pay active member dues and must fulfill all requirements of an active official including meetings and refresher test requirements.

f. CADETS: Year 2/ PROVISIONAL are officials who have successfully completed Year 1 of the cadet program by the timelines established. As Year 2 cadets, the official may only serve as a R2 on a varsity match. They must fulfill all requirements established for active members (testing, certifications, meetings, dues, etc.) They are required to attend one (1) additional rules meeting and two (2) mechanics meetings as determined by the Cadet Training and Examination Committee. They must successfully complete five (5) Evaluations, as determined by the Cadet Training and Examination Committee and approved by the Executive Council. An additional fee, as determined by the Executive Council, will be assessed to those officials in the Year 2/ PROVISIONAL program. Cadets: Year 2/ PROVISIONAL who do not fulfill the evaluation requirements within one year are to be carried over to the next year and are required to pay active member dues and must fulfill all requirements of an active official including meetings and refresher test requirements. They shall remain as Year 2/ PROVISIONAL officials until all requirements are fulfilled, but only within one (1) additional year. If after one (1) additional year they have not fulfilled the requirements they will be dropped from the association.

g. PROBATION: members have failed to meet one or all Association requirements. Members on probation must attend four (4) meetings and fulfill all of the requirements necessary to become an active member. While on probation, members will only be allowed to officiate regular season matches. They cannot accept any postseason/state matches.

h. SUSPENDED: members have failed to meet one or all Association requirements while serving probation or commits more serious violation, as determined by the Executive Council. Suspended members are not eligible to vote in any Association election and are ineligible to officiate any matches or tournaments at any level, during the period of suspension. Upon completion of suspension, the member shall be placed on Probation and must attend four (4) meetings and fulfill all of the requirements necessary to become an active member.

Section 3: FORMER members who choose to return to active officiating after a one (1) year lapse in time shall be allocated the opportunity to return based on the following:

1. Complete a renewal form.
2. Pay the appropriate dues for the current year and past dues and fees as established by the Executive Council.
3. Pass the yearly rules refresher test.
4. Attend a total of 3 meetings with one (1) being a rules interpretation meeting and another a mechanic meeting within the established timelines.
5. Comply with all other requirements (i.e. Concussion certifications, etc.) to become an active member.

Section 4: Transfer members who are members in good standing in their current volleyball association will be permitted to enter our association based on the following:

1. Complete an application form.
2. Pay the appropriate dues for the year they want to enter. The deadline for transfer shall be the same as the last deadline for dues submission.
3. Provide documentation from the current association that they be in good standing and up to date in any and all requirements. (i.e. Concussion Course, refresher test)
4. Successfully complete 5 evaluations using format determined by the Board of Directors to demonstrate their ability to officiate on the level that NE # 2 expects. Failure to complete within one year will prevent the transfer from obtaining "active" membership and will keep them on as a transfer for an additional year. If after one (1) additional year they have not fulfilled the requirements they will be dropped from the association.
5. Attend all required mechanics and rules meetings as required of all members. Attendance at their former association or dual association will be accepted as a replacement for one or more of our required meetings.

Section 5: Non-Compliance of Members

Non-compliance of association requirements are, not limited to, one or more of the following:

- e. wearing a non-approved uniform.
- f. conduct unbecoming of an official

Section 6: Conduct Unbecoming of an Official shall be grounds for disciplinary action and the following penalties shall be implemented:

1. Charges must be made in writing to the President. The President shall determine within fourteen (14) calendar days which charges or complaints shall be referred to the Executive Council for review.
2. Once convened, the Executive Council by a majority vote shall determine if complaint or charges merit consideration.
3. Once determination is made the corresponding secretary will inform the member of the charges that they face and inform the member of the decision of the Executive Council, within ten (10) days of the decision. The member against who said allegations have been file shall be informed in writing by registered letter and email of all allegations against him/her and shall be given copies of all written documents submitted to support the accusations.

4. If the Executive Council determines to proceed with the charges or complaint, the President will appoint a member(s) of the Executive Council to investigate the allegations. They shall report his/her findings to the Executive Council with his/her recommendations within fifteen (15) days of his/her appointment.
5. Based on his/her recommendation, the Executive Council can accept the recommendation of the appointee or conduct a hearing with accused member. Any member against whom allegations have been filed is entitled to counsel, at the appeal before the Executive Council. Such member shall also have the right to call any witnesses that they deem fit to support his/her appeal.
6. The Executive Council shall determine by a two thirds ($\frac{2}{3}$) vote of members present, of their decision of the appropriate action.
7. Within ten (10) days the Corresponding Secretary will notify in writing, by registered mail, the decision of the Executive Council.
8. Any disciplinary action determined by the Executive Council will carry in addition to any discipline brought by the NJSIAA.
9. Appeals- The member has the right to appeal any decision to the NJSIAA within fifteen (15) days after the decision of the Executive Council.

Section 7: DISCIPLINARY SITUATIONS

Members who fail to meet the required number of meetings are to be placed on probation for the following year. Members who fail to submit the annual refresher test are placed on Immediate Suspension for one year.

A member may not become inactive after being placed on probation or suspension. All former members with more than a one (1) year lapse in time as of July 31 shall apply for membership and meet all of the cadet requirements while on suspension.

Members who have failed to meet any one of the chapter requirements may submit in writing and transmit to the chairman of the Executive Council the member's rationale for not being placed on probation or suspension. After receiving the letter and reviewing the information, the Executive Council shall recommend whatever action they think is appropriate under the provisions of the Constitution and By-Laws. When allegations against a member are certified by the Grievance/Ethics Committee and submitted to the Executive Council, the following procedure shall be followed:

- a. The member against who said allegations have been filed shall be informed in writing by registered letter of all allegations against him/her and shall be given copies of all written documents submitted to support the accusations
- b. The member so notified shall have fifteen (15) days to respond to said charge(s) and submit in writing his reason(s) for a hearing before the Executive Council.
- c. The Executive Council after receiving the written notice shall hear the appeal within twenty (20) days of receiving the member's notice for an appeal. At this time the member may present evidence refuting the allegations.
- d. Any member against whom allegations have been filed is entitled to counsel at any appeal before the Executive Council. Such member shall also have the right to call any witnesses that they deem fit to support his or her appeal.

SECTION 8: For violations of these By-Laws, the Executive Council may impose the following penalties, at its discretion:

- a. A fine of one game fee may be assessed for lateness to a game, failure to fulfill or complete an assignment, uniform violations, or late submission of dues and registration fees.
- b. For conduct unbecoming an official, including missing an assignment, a member may be subject to a fine and/or probation for one year, and/or suspension for a time as determined by the Executive Council for expulsion from the association.
- c. All fines are payable to the Treasurer within seventy-two (72) hours of notification (excluding Sundays).
- d. Failure to pay assessed fines within the required time limit will result in expulsion. While such action is pending, the member shall be suspended from working and all assignments shall be returned. The NJSIAA shall be informed of the suspension or expulsion of any member of this association.

SECTION 9: As per the NJSIAA, registration for a member by the Executive Council will not be issued or renewed for anyone:
